

Continuing on this topic of basic doctrines, we are further looking into other attributes of God, which are constantly in a perfect, balanced scale. If mankind understood more about the personality of the Lord, then they would diminish their criticisms against His ways and plans. The section will cover why anger is not always a sin, how fearful the wrath of God can be, the Lord does not want to punish people but rather forgive them, what separates good men to have access with God in heaven, the forgotten aspect of God that literally millions do not consider before they criticize Him, how we can become perfect like God in Heaven, why jealousy is not always a sin, what the Holy Spirit can lust, the two types of how God is a consuming fire, God is so patient that He actually hates condemning them, and which promises that God is faithful in keeping for us.
