

There are only three verses that seem to really support the Pentecostal speaking of tongues.